BANKER ROBIN'S CASE IS PUZZLING

Fact That He is Technically insane Complicates It Very Much.

Bench Warrant Served on Him and Dr. Austin Flint, Who Signed Order for Commitment,

New York, Dec. 29.-It took the grand jury just an hour today to indict Jos. G. Robin on a charge of the larceny of $90,000 from the Washington Savings bank, of which he was president.

The savings bank passed into the hands of the state banking department today, there to keep company with the Bank of Northern New York, of whose Bank of Northern New York, of whose executive committee he was chairman, and with which his name has hitherto been more prominently connected. The district attorney explained that out of a mass of evidence drawn from the records of both institutions, he had chosen the charge that he thought could be presented most simply to a jury.

Robin was immediately placed under arrest at the home of his sister, Dr. Louise Robinovitch, but his arraign-

Three Essentials---Price terms and quality---are hapmingled, and the time that piano is buy now Everybody knows that we are the sole agents for the celebrated Pianola-Piano in this city. In the common practice of making exchanges where the purchase of a Pianola-Piano has been concerned, we have taken in many an upright in order to effect the sale of one more Pianola-Piano. But in making these exchanges we have been far more discriminating than the ordinary purchaser of a new piano could possibly be.

> As a consequence, upright pianos that have held sway in the best homes in this city, now stand on our floor awaiting their lucky purchasers. Side by side with them are some of our brand new, higher priced styles from our regular stock. These, too, must be included. At a glance you will note the heautiful mahogany and walnut finishes, strike a chord and your ear will tell you the magnificence of tone; ask us, and to your surprise you will learn that you are looking at, and listening to, a piano that is being offered for sale at hundreds less than its value.

Our regular terms, which are admittedly generous, apply during this sale if you wish to take advantage of them. Our easy payment plan enables you to have immediate possession, and make payments best adapted to your convenience.

As we say above, all things combine to your advantage if you buy that piano now.

William Travers Jerome, who has been retained by Robin, made his attitude toward this request plain.
"If it appears he is sufficiently able to appear in court, he can be brought here to answer to the indictment," he said. "He is now a ward of the su-preme court. If he is found responsible,

Robin drove up tonight in his automobile to his sister's home. A bench warrant was immediately served on him, and Dr. Austin Flint, one of the physicians who signed the order for his commitment. Dr. William B. Mabon, superintendent of the Manhattan state asylum for the insane, began an examination into his condition.

The indictment against Robin was passed on information sworn to by Frederick K. Morris, formerly his con Frederick K. Morris, formerly his con

It charges that the Washington Savings bank, of which Robin was president, was induced to draw to his order two checks aggregating $90,000, in consideration of participation in agreements purporting to give the bank an dequivalent in a mortgage executed by the Fidelity Development company, one of the string of companies promoted by Robin, in favor of the Title and Guar-antee company of Rochester, N. The Washington Savings bank went into the hands of the state banking department today to keep company with the Bank of Northern New York, and further indictments are expected.

W. F. SHEEHAN HOPES TO SUCCEED DEPEW

New York, Dec. 29.—William F. Sheehan made formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States senate toright in a letter addressed to Mayor Fulymann of Buffalo, who, with other leading Buffalo Democrats, recently indered him for the seat to become varient when the term of Senator Depew expires on March 4.

In defining his attitude toward national questions, Mr. Sheehan declares his belief in the letter and spirit of the platform adopted at the last Democratic state convention.

He urges that, whoever the Democratic party chooses for senator, his usefulness as a public officer be not weakened by unjust criticism during his candidacy. He decaries himself in favor of a bona fide downward revision of the tarlift, and continues:

"Trusts and combinations that control the necessaries of life and increase the cost of living are largely the result of excessive protective duties. For the immidiate present, that momentous question has been removed from the domain of politics.

Mr. Sheehan says that, though he rejoices in the world-wide effort for universal peace, that until this time comes he would heed the old saying, "Put your trust in God and keep your powder dry," "I have no patience," he continues, which the senators and representatives who have repeatedly submitted to executive dictation. #### NEW FORM OF WATER POWER PERMIT APPROVED

Washington, Dec. 25.—A new form of water power permit and new regulations for water power plants on national forests were approved yesterday by the secretary of agriculture.

The important changes under the new regulations are provisions for the lawnance of a prelimitary permit, which gives to the person making the first application protection during the time necessary to make final surveys. The new permits will determine at the expiration of 50 years.

The charge will be based upon the net horsepower of the plant, beginning with a charge of 10 cents per horsepower during the first year and rising gradually 10 cents per year to $1 per horsepower in the tenth year.

Computed for the 50-year period, the charge under the new permit is about 20 per cent less than under the old form. It is believed that the new regulations will encourage water power development in national forests under provisions that will fully protect the interests of the people.

Government Believes They Have Fought Their Last Organized Battle.

Chihuahua, Mex., Dec. 29.-Official reports today, which seem to be confirmed by developments, indicate that the first stage of the insurrection in western Chihuahua is over and the second has begun. The government believes that hegun. The government believes that insurrectos fought their last organized battle at Pedernales two weeks ago and that they have split into small bands, which it will take months to catch and subdue.

These reports are confirmed by the fact that Mal Paso, the key to the railroad, is free of them and that Gen. Navarro is now in control of the situation all along the line.

The train, ordered to proceed to Pedernales for wounded, was unable to get away from here until early this morning. At noon it had reached San Andreas. As the train proceeds the crew is repairing the track and restoring the wires, which were torn up or cut by the insurrection. When this work is completed, the train will stop at Pedernales and take on board the wounded of Gen. Navarro's troops.

These have been compelled to get along with the crude attention of a field hospital since the fights at Cerro Prieto, three weeks ago, and Pedernales and Mal Paso. Prieto, three weeks ago, and Pedernale:

Prieto, three weeks ago, and Pedernales and Mal Paso.

The government reiterates its statement that the pass was occupied and a junction formed with Gen. Navarro by his reinforcements without seeing the enemy. There could be no better confirmation of this than the fact that the government train is now in the pass which was formerly the insurrectos' stronghoid. The latter apparently exercised discretion and retired in the face of a greatly superior foe.

With their extreme mobility the insurrectos are still capable of making irouble. The federal troops must proceed cautiously as the swift moving horsemen of the revolutionists can rally 200 or 300 men at short notice to attack any inferior detachment which may become isolated.

Foreigners, who are heavily interested financially in the affected district, face a long period of business stagnation. They say it will take months to pacify the western part of the state even if there are no scrious developments in the custern and northern nd Mal Paso.

Information from the Ojinaga district is to the effect that the revolutionists in that section are mobilizing and have sent word to their western comrades to hold out until the former can advance on this city. One rumor went so far as to place the date at January 18.
